

You and your partner are choosing a film for Friday night.

A: Say what kind of films you like and why.

B: Say you prefer another kind and give a reason.

I prefer ... because I think ...

One of you is new at the school, and you want to learn about each other's evenings.

A: Ask what your partner does in the evenings.

B: Answer with usually, sometimes and never.

What do you do in the evenings? · I usually ...

You and your partner are talking about music on the school bus.

A: Tell your partner a type of music you can't stand.

B: Say if you agree and name a type you love.

I can't stand ... · I love ...

Your class is planning a fashion show for the school fair.

A: Say what you think of trendy clothes.

B: Say you prefer casual clothes and explain why.

I think ... · I prefer wearing ...

You and your partner are talking about free time at weekends.

A: Ask how often your partner goes to the cinema.

B: Answer, then ask about a hobby your partner is keen on.

How often do you ...? · I rarely ... · I'm keen on ...

You and your partner are talking about weekends with your families.

A: Say one thing you love and one thing you hate doing with your parents.

B: Compare it with your own family.

I love ...ing · I hate ...ing

You both watched the school concert yesterday.

A: Give your opinion of one song in the concert.

B: Agree or disagree politely and give your own opinion.

I think it was impressive. · In my opinion, ...